WORLD WATER FORUM

The Largest international forum in the water sector involving various stakeholders, which has been invented by the World Water Council. The Forum is held every three years and has been taking place since 1997. The World Water Forum is not just a conference: it includes a three-year preparation phase (preparatory phase), a one-week event (event phase), and a presentation of the results (synthesis phase) with ongoing support for collective action.

The Forum brings together participants from all levels and areas, including politics, multilateral institutions, academia, civil society and the private sector, among others. Over the years, the number of people participating in the Forum has grown from a few hundred to tens of thousands, from both the international community and host countries.

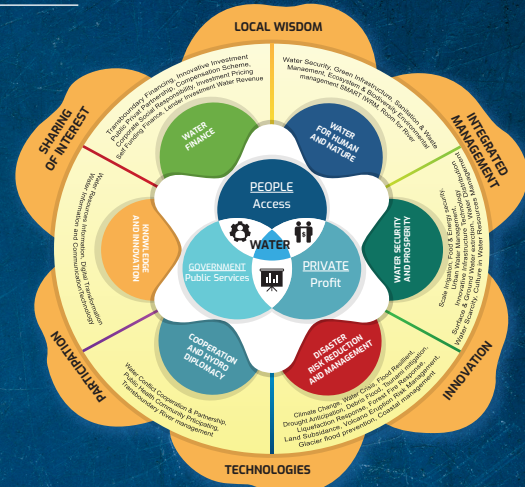

During the week of May 2024, the heads of state, the heads of international organizations, high level government officials, experts, scholars, entrepreneurs and economists from all over the world will share their knowledges, experiences, and practices regarding a wide range of topics related to water.

THEME WATER FOR SHARED PROSPERITY

The importance of water has a high position in human cultures, we realize that water is essential for human live since ancient time. From daily consumptions, purifications, conservations, cultivations and so on, even some view water as the live itself and the source of immortality.

Nowadays, water management often become the main issues in international events and declarations, including the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG's). The SDG's put a goal that must be achieved in 2030 to ensure the sustainable living.

The importance of water is specially mentioned in the SDG's number 6, Clean Water and Sanitation for all, where the sub-goal elaborates in detail. In order to achieve those targets, all stakeholders need to works together and understand each other needs. With a good water management, we can achieve prosperity together, and for all.
